

Ryan's Daughter 1st June 2022

Ryan had a bar and he called it Ryan's Daughter,
A bunker not a bar where he set his nightly slaughter,
The entrance was for free & he had great groups of mates
But to exit cost your soul and a thousand dirty dates
Twas where daughters lost their freedom
& young men made their babies
So be careful of the bars you choose for they ruin nice young ladies

But Ryan cries - Whats wrong with me?
It's the way the Scottish world is.
Its to teach the young that lifes not fair
Rip ribbons from sweet girls hair
Teach money and power rule our roost
And cocks do crow when we're let loose

I was brought up by an abusive life
So I will date rape, my swords a knife
And you will beg me for your life
I'll make you bleed my sacrifice

But in the end you'll thank me dear
For I am not some weird old queer
Rainbows are for kids and I'm a man
My love is pain and sex a sham

So lose you girls your orgasms gone
Break flowers and dreams with my ram
And if a Venus man does dare appear
My brothers and I ride him till he's queer

For truly I tell you my sweet heart milk cow
My bar is life in Scotland now
And no one stands up for love and youth
Because God is dead are we not proof?

My atheism puts me as God
My diety my holy prod
Why should I hold you as precious
I prefer life in a world gone viscous

I hate life and life hates me
A negative anti world are we
We hate the stranger resent the guest
And through our cruelty we will be blessed

So girls and boys be careful when you dream of an adventure
Stay where your safe & avoid friends/family that resent you
For by our stories and our acts
We make the public face the facts
That they have a duty to their kids and guests
Too root out abuse violence drugs and the rest

And then by little steps of fair duty
Life can be good and bring back beauty

Until that time I make my garden a delight
And bless my flowers both by day and night
Let the old world fall let rats eat each other
We will be patient for our true lover

For no one stands against my tribes
We are blessed by rainbows filled with pride
Angels on our shoulders and spirits in our hearts
We will heal this earth but you should play your part

My poems finished I have earned this crown
So you can follow me or hunt me down
Either way you'll get your reward through me
A shame upon your name or a new opportunity

For easter tide and earth day too
Show us that a new earth is due
And many tribes and teams are here
To rescue you from your new found fear

Yes anti christs are just what they seem
Perfect stealers of your dreams
And we fight battles beyond your ken
We rescue you from weaker men/women

Do not be scared of me my friends
I rescue fools as well as bend
Those rulers to kneel follow truth and beauty
Or break upon a yolk of cruelty
They created for themselves from false duty.
To a nation made from division and plunder
You dogs of war rip yourselves asunder.

For my queen believes in commonwealth
She serves God in sickness and in health
She has given all her life to her birth right
We should honour her in good times and despite

She is my ruler I am her man/boy
& we will restore the world to joy
Her knights also support us as a team
And a commonwealth of nations is her dream
What better place is there than this to create
This new Eden earth for my friends and mates

Jonathan Proctor June 2022 – PS Abusing the innocent either young or old carries major consequences. And date rape is spiritual murder and that's a crime we will not tolerate. Thankfully I have a healing process even for that crime. But I will never forget what some of you have done to people I care about.... If you feel shame and remorse I suggest you confess to one of the tribal groups collecting stories and testimonies. I witnessed a terrible crimes on Saturday including the spiking of a girl on her first night out at 18 we took her to A&E.

Those who bless me will be blessed and those who curse me will be cursed. Today is a jubilee day and yesterday I recognised the need to replace abuse with the divine feminine by sharing the Magnificat first part with Mirriams testimony of magnifying the lord as his handmaiden and how he would show mercy to those who fear him. This is the message of Jesus as the Lion not the lamb and we need that more than ever. I hope Eveline will recognise the need to connect with me and help me build my team she has been diverted till now from her true purpose/mission but guys like me are very few and far between. Now read way of the warrior 2.
