

The Way of the Warrior 2 – The Divine feminine

We are in a spiritual war. The war has been going on and now people realise that there is no more time to waste and all the evil forces we are up against are clear before us. This great spiritual war is set to destroy all life and all beauty its very clear now both in a controlling society and in the destruction of the natural world. Killing three of the last 24 great male bull elephants this month just demonstrates the urgency of raising the divine feminine.

By now many of the tribes have shared their stories of how they had been abused as children and as young women how people have used gossip and innuendo to control others often privately said in order to create fear and distrust. Be careful of one to one communications with anyone we are up against spirits not people and people can become dominators when alone with you even if normally they are fine. Also be careful of organised bullying. Stick by your conscience and ask open questions to decide about the advice you are being given and whether its done with love.

Stick to our two principles about LOVE

1. Does it support the earth and a healthy planet
2. Does it support loving your neighbour as yourself. – remember you need to love yourself first. You are worthy of love you are good, kind, giving, forgiving, gentle, caring and a defender of the weak these are all manifestations of love if you have those in you and follow those actions then you should love yourself no matter what others say.

On this second point – note how beautiful you are. You can count this in two ways:

- a. You are beautiful on the inside because you can see that behind your face and body there is a gentle person seeking to be worthy of love and that is to be so very beautiful. Your tears remind you of the beauty that God sees but you cannot. Every truly caring person is beautiful. Don't give in to vanity it is just a sham. If God made you ugly in your eyes he did so because he saw the beauty and grace in your heart and how more physically beautiful friends will need your strength and love and guidance/support.
- b. You are physically beautiful. This is a challenge as everyone will try to make you their slave or pet. They will compliment you to gain your trust and criticise and call you names to keep you in your place. The more they desire you the more they will seek to control you. Test your boundaries and if they don't follow you or support any of your caring dreams they don't love you no matter the gifts and the number of times they tell you how much they love you. Be careful of crocodile tears too. When they give up trying to manipulate you their jealousy can take over and then they try to destroy you that is the final proof that they never loved you.

The path of the warrior is not easy for you need to become emotionally resilient to survive and grow. If you are in an unhealthy situation then you need to escape. I am praying for guidance on that and working on it too.

Personally as a young person this is about facing your trials and the tricks in your school, family and community. Breaking free of the controls you might be under are really challenging but that comes from genuine friends. In my school I only had one really true friend and he was persecuted more than me. So don't worry if you are a lone warrior. Your poetry and books and other information can help protect you. If you are in one of my tribes then already you have a connection. Your tribe will help but there are always tests within the tribe just as without it, someone will try to dominate who isn't the truest person that's their ego, but it should be far easier inside if you are learning from these messages.

The Abuse of LOVE

If you are feeling very emotional at these times recognise it because of this new flower moon and the new earth which is forming. The birthing pains are always very hard and we just have to surrender to them a bit, there are all sorts of energy things happening to the earth just now. Be careful of making decisions just now if you are in turmoil but always follow what you believe is the best for your future don't make any long term commitments everything is going to change.

My family and father particularly said to my relatives that I was too sensitive after my Mother passed and I lost my business, my marriage and my dog and needed to man up and he had to break me. So many men think like this and so I have been bullied further by a range of people. This was after I had been running businesses traveled through war torn countries etc so I was very much a man just not going to be an abusive one. Of course the greatest pain comes from the betrayal of family and friends, but we have to be prepared to stand up against any if it's against our divine purpose and only you really know this. Anyone who truly loves you knows this and will support you.

I have had to divert from the path I had been on to support these stories and help create these products because you need to be supported where ever you are. Jesus always talks about children and their divine and natural nature plus God's children which I believe are the millennials that's why they are have been so lost. That is why the greatest battles are in schools and then for young adults in pubs and clubs. My spiritual journey has been massive I have had to recover from years of damaging drugs from the NHS, develop my spirit walk and surrender over Covid and all this tribulation and come to an awakening through the revelation of the magnificat. I therefore attach it here. This is the only female testimony in the new testament and it reveals the divine feminine very clearly

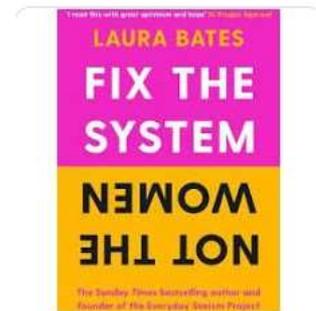

My Soul magnifies the Lord,
And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Saviour,
For He has regarded the low estate of His handmaid
For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed
For He who is mighty has done great things for me
And holy is his name
And his mercy is on those who fear Him
From generation to generation
He has shown strength with His arm
He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts
He has put down the mighty from their thrones
And exalted the lowly

People try to protect you by making some things private supposedly to protect you but it's also controlling that's why I put a lot on the web and on facebook publically. I want to save the whole earth and that means we can't be divided we just have to split ourselves from those who would delay or abuse us. We cannot deliver change without a major transformation and that cannot come until we are more united as a set of tribes separate but also following a common goal.

That said we also have to be careful and discrete. I guess I have been far from that in some ways but hiding is dangerous too and this causes people to tell you certain sex acts are good when they are not and they are set to put you on a trail of submission. If you like the look of a girl giving a guy a blow job or any other forms of abuse then you are not in my kingdom and we will not associate with you. That sex is also so empty compared to a divine love making. If you are young and reading this know that sex education in primary schools is not loving its all about self gratification and domination and perversion from your natural self. Its also worth recognising that abusing girls is abusing the earth too.

Tackling Abuse:

This is a great book but but it is overwhelmingly about the abuse and not about fixing much . However I am an ecosystem architect and a rainbow warrior and a great spirit and this give me some great allies and some great insights. Fixing the system is getting the divine feminine to take over once again as it was before this civilisation took control.

Fix the System, Not the Women by...

£8.60

AwesomeBooks

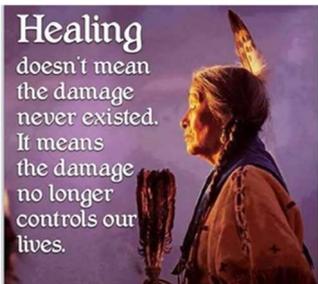

DONTS

1. DON'T BUY THIS BOOK ON AMAZON – its probably the most abusive company on earth. If you want to fix the system it starts right now. Don't spend your money on anything that supports abuse. (people, planet, smaller businesses, entrepreneurs etc).
2. DON'T DECIDE TO STOP BEING A GIRL - this is part of your power you just have to use it effectively. Girls are far more powerful than boys that's why they have to create a whole system to abuse us.
3. ITS NOT ABOUT FEMINISM. – Its about the divine feminine. This is a part of both men and women. Most men have it crushed out of them or submit to male stereotypes and become serial abusers too. Many women decide that to win in a mans world you have to become like a man and try to dominate too. That is to create a war between the sexes and obviously that's not what God would want. Its not loving its not natural and its not effective.
4. ITS NOT ABOUT SELF DENIAL – Its not about suffering its about learning and testing your boundaries. You can be any person you like just follow your inner truth and follow what makes you happy. But if you are not sure who you are just give it time and discover yourself in nature. If you like nature learn about it, if you like clothes or cooking or health or making things or maths or engineering then follow it and enjoy it. The divine feminine is the creative part of ourselves that's why I am so creative too.

DO's

1. SHOP ETHICALLY – buy from people you like, support entrepreneurs particularly local ones, I like ebay and I like to trust people and I have never been let down. Get things made by local people and support locally made produce etc but be careful not to be exploited either and always ask lots of questions as you can learn a lot about the sales person and the product and the issues. I can provide guidance on the right questions etc.
2. BE A GIRL OR BE LIKE ONE - I am a girly man but I am not going to continuously be put down. I love the divine feminine so much and had to hide it because it was used to trick me or them. In the end I have realised I trust the fellowship of women but not men they always seek to dominate and abuse its their addiction. There are other men like me but I will need my girl tribes to help me test them and teach them how to behave. Keep a note of all the ways you are abused and we can use them in stories and poems to teach them better.

3. IT'S THE DIVINE FEMININE – This is the soul of the earth as the magnificat explains. We can connect with the earth soul as a telepathic connection to life and maintain a heart connection too but I believe there are medical and technological efforts to prevent this happening. To follow the divine feminine is to use the intelligence of your heart. Wisdom is a female entity as it also emanates from the heart. Now I am very wise and I know how to learn/guide from all signs but that will require teaching on the spirit path and what my spirit stones are about.
4. ITS ABOUT RELATIONSHIP – Healing is a mutual thing, you cannot heal unless you can surrender and no health systems teach that properly. Certainly the NHS is all about invasive actions surgery and pharmaceuticals. Spiritual damage like overcoming abuse is more than a mental health issue, its not about your mind its about your centre and your whole universe. Until you know how you fit your don't fit. Until you know the path you want to follow you have no purpose and until you can find people who you really trust you cannot learn or grow.

I hope you will recognise the divine wisdom and the divine feminine in this piece. I know lots of people read my pieces and pass then on and I have to trust the universe that it will support me back. I have had to give up a lot for this journey and being a spirit walker is not easy in a world of financial challenges, but we are defined by what we give not what we take and so I hope my lesson inspires you to help those who help you and that means we reap what we sow and I can see all my work bearing fruit from divine rainbows, to many friendly faces and tears too.

In order to help you here are some songs to help: Search for the Hero M People - Big Yellow Taxi – Joni Mitchell, The Snake - Al Wilson, Don't Call me Baby – Madison Avenue, In a big Country – Big Country – Sunshine State - Pixey – Ghosttown -Madonna

Case Study on the Himba Tribe in Southern Africa

Of all the African tribes still alive today, the Himba tribe is one of the few that counts the birth date of the children not from the day they are born nor conceived but the day the mother decides to have the child.

When a Himba woman decides to have a child, she goes off and sits under a tree, by herself, and she listens until she can hear the song of the child who wants to come. And after she's heard the song of this child, she comes back to the man who will be the child's father, and teaches him the song. When they make love to physically conceive the child, they sing the song of the child as a way of inviting the child.

When she becomes pregnant, the mother teaches that child's song to the midwives and the old women of the village, so that when the child is born, the old women and the people gather around him/her and sing the child's song to welcome him/her. As the child grows up, the other villagers are taught the child's song. If the child falls, or gets hurt, someone picks him/her up and sings to him/her his/her song. Or maybe when the child does something wonderful, or goes through the rites of puberty, then as a way of honoring this person, the people of the village sing his or her song.

In the Himba tribe there is one other occasion when the "child song" is sang to the Himba tribesperson. If a Himba tribesman or tribeswoman commits a crime or something that is against the Himba social norms, the villagers call him or her into the center of the village and the community forms a circle around him/her. Then they sing his/her birth song to him/her.

The Himba views correction not as a punishment, but as love and remembrance of identity. For when you recognise your own song, you have no desire or need to do anything that would hurt another.

In marriage, the songs are sung, together. And finally, when the Himba tribesman/tribeswoman is lying in his/her bed, ready to die, all the villagers that know his or her song come and sing - for the last time that person's song.

Note: Songs are important that's why DJs tend to be men and songs are often set to manipulate. The universe has a good name and here is a way in which ancient tribes connect with songs. Note this the mother decides to have a child – apparently 40% of men think its ok to remove a condom during sex. I believe its much worse than that. These genes need to go extinct. Why would you ever want sex with such a person and why feel obliged to carry such a child in you.